

Dog licenses are issued from the office of the Town of Binghamton Town Clerk. This may be done in person or through the mail. If requested by mail, a self-addressed, stamped envelope MUST be provided, along with a check payable to TOWN OF BINGHAMTON. If done in person, you may pay with check, cash or credit. Office hours are from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

OWNER'S INSTRUCTIONS

1. All dogs four months of age or older are to be licensed.
2. Print all information and sign and date the form.
3. Proof of current rabies vaccination must be provided. If the dog has been spayed/neutered, certification must also be provided.
4. Breed and Color - From the list below, choose one breed (or write in the breed of your dog if it is not on the list) and one or two colors that best describe your dog.
5. Markings – Please any significant markings on the dog, if any.
6. Fees – Check the type of license you are applying for and submit the amount to the Town Clerk.
